

LIMITED DEPICTION RELEASE

I hereby irrevocably agree and consent that you, Blue Seraph Productions, and your assignees, may use all or part of my image photographed and recorded as a part of the table reading for Something Like Summer.

You have the right to use my picture, silhouette and other reproductions of my likeness and voice in connection with any motion picture or television program in which this recording may be incorporated, and in any advertising material promoting it. However, the total running time of footage edited from this recording cannot exceed five minutes.

You shall have all right, title and interest in any and all results and proceeds from said use or appearance, except as detailed below.

The rights granted you are perpetual, and include the use of this recording, film or videotape in any medium (all or part of the program may be shown), including broadcast and cable television, Web sites, streaming media, DVDs, CD-ROMs, videocassettes and other media, and only for "behind the scenes" footage ancillary to the film.

This consent is given as an inducement for you to record me for the project, "Something Like Summer Table Reading," and I understand you will incur substantial expense in reliance thereof.

You are not obliged to make any use of this recording, videotape or film, or exercise any of the rights granted you by this release. Any use of this recording, videotape or film in the actual film, Something Like Summer, is prohibited without further compensation.

I have read and I understand the meaning of this release.
